

SS03 Malaysian Traditional Architecture

The program offers an experience on one of the richest components of Malaysian cultural heritage, which is the traditional architecture. Study trips will cover all states in Peninsular Malaysia and participants will be exposed to the history, culture and architecture of traditional Malay houses, Chinese shop houses, mosques, temples etc. Participants will learn more about traditional architecture through first hand experiences in the socio cultural activities throughout the journey.

Duration

2 - 3 week Program

1st week:

Introduction lecture on Johor, Melaka and Negeri Sembilan

- Study tour along Sungai Johor, looking at the old settlement of Johor
- Experiencing Johor, Melaka and Negeri Sembilan local culture and traditional architecture
- Experiencing the unique Chinese settlement of Kampung Kukup Laut and Melaka Old town.

2nd Week

Introduction lecture on Selangor, Pahang, Perak and Kedah

- Study tour looking at the settlement and traditional architecture of Selangor, Pahang, Perak and Kedah
- Experiencing Orang Asli settlement of Pahang

3rd week:

Introduction lecture on Penang, Kelantan and Terengganu

- Study tour looking at settlement and traditional Architecture of Penang, Kelantan and Terengganu
- Experiencing the unique Chinese settlement of Penang, Siamese settlement of Kelantan and wood carving of Terengganu.
- Presentation on sharing experiences of the journey.

How the Program is Conducted?

Study tour

		Malay traditional houses

			Study Tour
	Mosque, Temples &amp; Chinese Shop House

Fee:
USD 1,000 (2weeks)
USD 1,500 (3weeks)
*Price is negotiable for partner universities.

Please contact :
Siti Rahimah Mohd. Yusof
e-mail: globaloutreach@utm.my

For further information contact:
Assoc. Prof. Dr. Raja Nafida Raja Shahminan
e-mail: b-nafida@utm.my

Visit website:
<http://www.utm.my/internationalaffairs>