Dear Sir / Madam:

I am writing to you regarding our degree programs for international students here in the Department of Engineering Science at National Cheng Kung University (NCKU), Tainan, Taiwan. Would you please be so kind as to put up the poster and pass the brochure to any of your students who may wish to study abroad?

NCKU is one of Taiwan's leading learning and research universities, and comprises nine colleges equipped with all the latest equipment and facilities and spanning all the major academic disciplines. Founded in 1965, the Engineering Science Department provides students with the knowledge and skills required to pursue a successful career in the electronics, computer science and applied mechanics fields. Our programs are consistently ranked among the best offered by NCKU, and we are justifiably proud of our faculty, students and facilities.

For your convenience, the application details are summarized as follows:

Application Periods:

Fall Semester: January 10 ~ April 10 annually (for undergraduate and graduate programs).

Spring Semester: July 20 ~ October 20 annually (for graduate programs).

Application Method: NCKU International Online System

Application Website: <http://admissions.oia.ncku.edu.tw>

Current Programs: http://admissions.oia.ncku.edu.tw/college/open_programs

Scholarship Information: <http://admissions.oia.ncku.edu.tw/doc/view/sn/8>

I would be most grateful if you could publicize these details to your students. We look forward to welcoming them to the NCKU family.

Yours faithfully

Teh-Lu Liao
Professor, Department Chair
